

3CU: Workers' Compensation for Mergers and Acquisitions

Brokers specializing in mergers and acquisitions have long-term relationships with private equity firms who demand excellence. They involve tight time frames, the need for flexible program structures and respect for confidentiality. Your underwriters need a broad background and understanding of these commercial clients and their exposures. Using our individual account model, Third Coast Underwriters' (3CU) underwriting and loss control team assesses client needs allowing us to design workers' compensation programs matching their unique requirements.

We will aid you in the due diligence process by focusing on your client's priorities and work with you to evaluate available information and deliver your quote promptly. Our minimum premium for accounts is $150,000.

Whether your goal is to limit costs or collateral, we can design a product to meet your needs.

Excluded operations

- Asbestos removal and related standard exclusions
- Professional employer organizations (PEO) and temporary services
- Risks involved in the manufacturing, transportation, handling or storage of explosives, fireworks or nuclear materials
